

Mae Aur
901-277-7021
maeflaurs@gmail.com
www.MaeAur.com

ARTIST STATEMENT

Inspired by form and craft, Mae Aur is a mixed media sculptor working and living in Memphis, Tennessee. Her most recent body of work, "I Don't Want to Talk About It," is handcrafted from wood and painted in bright colors to add whimsy to an equally dim narrative. The arrangement of fundamental symbolic forms explore complex systems such as the causality of communicative drippings, inner and outer femininity in contemporary society, and reckoning with Self following projection.

SOLO EXHIBITIONS

Sweet Creams — April 2014
Glitch Gallery- Memphis, TN

GROUP EXHIBITIONS

Words Matter — September 2014
Jay Etkin Gallery - Memphis, TN

Planet Nine: Displacement — March 2016
Marshall Arts- Memphis, TN

Summer Pop Up — May 2016
Martine Chaisson Gallery - New Orleans, LA

Unfinished — June 2016
Glitch Gallery - Memphis, TN

Unfinished (encore) — July 2016
Glitch Gallery- Memphis, TN

Words Matter 4 — September 2016
Playhouse on the Square- Memphis, TN

EDUCATION

Certificate Program at Appalachian Center for Craft
BFA University of Memphis